

IN NORTH TOPEKA

Elmont is Planning for an Agricultural High School.

Will Give a Course Similar to That at K. S. A. C.

On last Monday a meeting was held at the Elmont church to consider the question of a proposed agricultural high school for that district. A petition to gain signatures in favor of the proposition is being circulated in the following outlying districts: Half-Day, Highland, Fairview, Priddy and Indian Creek.

As the expense of organizing such school would fall on the taxpayers of the district mentioned, the promoters offer a statement, as follows: "The proposed agricultural high school will be better than a duplication of the four-year course at Manhattan in agriculture, the advantages of which many of the children in this section are unable to take advantage of, and for which their parents are paying taxes to support."

While the taxpayers will not avoid having to pay the taxes which go to maintain the state school, they will not have to pay a tuition for their children to attend the proposed agricultural high school.

No effort on the part of the promoters of the idea is being made to push the proposition without the taxpayers fully understanding all it means for them, and they are making an effort to get every one in the district to vote, either in favor of or against it, at the election, which will be held soon.

"Parents' Day" at Lyman School.

"Parents' day," which was observed at Lyman school on Wednesday afternoon, proved a success. A large crowd of parents and friends attended during the afternoon and listened to the special program, which was presented both in literary and musical numbers. Refreshments were served by the girls of the advanced grades, and the program was in charge of the advance grade pupils.

Bound to Have Their Fun.

Friends and neighbors of a supposed newly wed couple gathered at the home of the "bride," 525 Monroe street, to share their fun. News emanated from some unofficial source that the couple had been married, and the crowd gathered to celebrate the event. When the charivari, who numbered between seventy-five and one hundred people, gathered in the pines and skiffs in front of Miss Goodrich's residence on Monday evening and invited the couple out to the house, they refused to go. The bride decided to go in after them. All of the doors were locked, but later the crowd was admitted by one of the household and proceeded to charivari the couple. Grease from the frying pans was smeared on the faces of the "bride" and "groom."

Death of Mrs. Hardick.

North Topeka lost another old resident Tuesday by the death of Mrs. Harriet Hardick, who died at the home of her son, William Hardick, of the city. Mrs. Hardick was eighty-five years of age. She was born in Saratoga, New York, in 1830. She accompanied her husband to Kansas in 1879.

The funeral was held this afternoon from the home of her son, and the body was sent to Wagoner for burial. She is survived by her son and several grandchildren.

Notes and Personal.

More than two hundred persons attended the play "The Hiram Sewing Circle," which was given Wednesday evening by the ladies of the Eastern Star at 815 Kansas avenue. The play will be given on next Wednesday evening at Indian Creek grange.

Arthur Stitt, who is employed in Kansas city, is in Topeka visiting his family at 815 Kansas avenue. Mr. and Mrs. Will Pollock have moved to their new home at Independence and Monroe streets in Garfield place.

A. M. Petro, druggist—Adv.

Mrs. F. B. Morse has returned to the city after having spent the winter months in Santa Barbara, Cal.

A petition is being circulated in North Topeka asking the management of Garfield park to secure the services of the Knights and Ladies band for the season.

The Sunshine Bible class met this afternoon at the home of Mrs. H. H. Sutton, 206 East Gordon street.

HER HOME COMING

Mrs. Anna Adams Baird Greeted by Throngs of Natives

On Returning to Her Mission in Far Away Korea.

How hundreds of Korean natives gathered at the depot to greet Mrs. Anna Adams Baird, Topeka Presbyterian missionary, who returned to this country to spend her last days among natives with whom she had labored for twenty-five years is told in a letter written to Mrs. Robert Steele, Seventeenth and Colfax avenues, by the Rev. W. M. Baird, husband of the Topeka woman. Mrs. Steele is a sister of Mrs. Baird.

Mrs. Baird's action in leaving her sons and relatives in this country after discovering that she was afflicted with a fatal illness has done more to exploit the cause of Christian religion among non-Christian natives than any of the Presbyterian missionaries, according to those who received here. Christian natives are telling non-Christians of the sacrifice made by a loving mother in returning to them to work in her last days and the beautiful sentiment of it all is striking right at the hearts of non-Christians.

Last Visit With Sons.

After being informed by physicians that she was fatally ill, Mrs. Baird last Monday evening said to her sons, kept home for them and lived for a few weeks in the atmosphere of home loved so by all mothers. Then with a farewell visit to her sons, she left for the last time and again took up the task assigned to her when she came to this country as a missionary.

Rev. A. E. Peterson will have charge of the Santa Fe telegraph school bible class Friday morning.

Carried From Boat.

Five days out of San Francisco, Mrs. Baird wrote a letter of farewell to the congregation of the Presbyterian church. It was read on January 8 by Rev. A. E. Peterson.

For weeks no further word was received from Mrs. Baird. Finally a note informed loving relatives and friends that she lay between life and death in a hospital at Yokohama. It was necessary to carry her from the boat to a hospital. But her strength of will upon reaching Seoul again and by slow and devious routes her husband and another relative finally succeeded in taking her to Seoul, where she remained in a hospital two weeks.
